CALL FOR PAPERS

The purpose of this Colloquium is to share with participants what can be considered as best practices in the teaching of a foreign language.

Participants (researchers, scholars and experts) are invited to submit a best practice (working paper), considering the two main topics addressed in the Colloquium:

- The Use of Technology in the Foreign Language Classroom
- Intercultural Experiences in different contexts.

However, other topics in relevant areas of language teaching will also be included for the afternoon sessions. These include:

Academic Writing, Curriculum Internationalization, Professional Development, Assessment, International Certification, and Linguistic Policies.

For papers, participants are invited to complete the reply form including the requested information considering that English will be the working language of the Colloquium.

- Title of the Best Practice.
- Abstract (250 words maximum).
- Bibliography (3 to 5 references in APA format 6th edition).
- A bio data of the participant (50 words maximum).
- Synopsis of the best practice (60 to 80 words) for the programme.
- Participant photo.
